Apec As An Institution Multilateral

APEC is an experimental multilateralism, relying not on a large bureaucracy but rather upon national government agencies, semi-autonomous inter-governmental committees and "virtual" associations. Organized around the principles of consensus, voluntarism and unilateralism, APEC has eschewed binding agreements enforced through monitoring and robust compliance mechanisms.

REMAKING APEC AS AN INSTITUTION

APEC - A Multilateral Economic Forum. Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) operates as a cooperative, multilateral economic and trade forum. It is the only international intergovernmental grouping in the world committed to reducing barriers to trade and investment without requiring its members to enter into legally binding obligations.

How APEC Operates

Singapore chaired APEC in 2009 under the theme, "Sustaining Growth, Connecting the Region". Our chairmanship focused on recovering from the Great Financial Crisis through supporting the Multilateral Trading System / WTO, accelerating regional economic integration and strengthening the APEC institution.
