Occasionally, novice enthusiasts will mistake the MG 1100 or Austin America for a Mini, but it is a larger car all around. Other than power unit parts (engine and transmission), very little is interchangeable with the classic Mini. For the latest in information about the USA 1100-1300 scene, see www.austinamericausa.com.

The original is considered a British icon of the 1960s. The production version of the Mini was demonstrated to the press in April 1959, and by August several thousand cars had been produced ready for the first sales. The Mini was marketed under BMC's two main brand names, Austin and Morris until 1969, when it became a marque in its own right.
