He is free and whilst he plays his games with DCI Ryan, biding his time, he finds himself bored and looking for someone to satisfy his needs. Now, more than ever, the team need to find him and put him back behind bars before he can destroy any more lives. High Force was particularly terrifying for me, having a sixteen year old daughter.

The DCI Ryan Mysteries are set in Northumberland, which is a region of England that the author is particularly familiar with, given that she grew up there. These are fast-paced mystery and murder novels peppered with a bit of romance and humor.

LJ Ross - Book Series In Order

The DCI Ryan stories are entertaining, but not outstanding. The Audible versions suffer mostly from a narrator that can't do female voices. This particular book's, High Force, audible recording is poor - so you can't really listen to it with anything but ear buds. the volume is set so low, that even on high you can barely hear it. it's ruined this particular book for me.

High Force (Audiobook) by LJ Ross | Audible.in

Poor Ryan just never appears to have a simple time of it. The Hacker getting away brings back a considerable measure of recollections that he would rather disregard and the way that he is attempting to play with Ryan and upset his mind likewise is making it harder for Ryan to keep a reasonable head.
