1 Hour China Books - Jeffrey Towson

The aim for this book, as the name implies, is simple. If Towson and Woetzel, well-known experts with decades of first-hand experience in China, had one hour to brief you on the most important factors driving the country's development, here's what they would tell you. It's the 50,000-foot view of China that gets rid of the most common misconceptions (the manufacturing sector has more advantages than just low costs) and replaces them with the trends that are shaping the Chinese economy ...
